Storytellers Bios

Derek Coghlan

Derek Coghlan is a storyteller from Castlepollard, Co. Westmeath, a small town in the middle of nowhere in the middle of Ireland. He came to America in 1990, resides in St. Augustine, currently teaches English at Allen D. Nease High School and single-handedly tries to ruin the minds of America's future.

Katie Rubin

Katie Rubin is an Energy Healer, Professional Actress, Improv Comedian, Stand Up Comic and Acting/Writing Instructor for Stanford University Online. During the past 15 years, she has written 5 original solo shows, toured them nationally, and performed them in Equity Theaters, and at Colleges and Universities around the country. She works consistently on stage and on camera (Check out katie Rubin on stage.com), tours as a Stand Up Comic, was commissioned to write two plays, has completed the first draft of a memoir, and has been teaching an online Writing Workshop called "Writing in Alignment" for 7 years. For class details, tour dates, and healing info, check out KatieRubin.com and KatieRubinOnStage.com

Jason Lee Collins

Jason is a native of Sarasota, Florida. He received his B.A. in theatre and dramatic arts from Ferrum College located in Ferrum, Virginia. He has performed regionally with some great theatre companies such as Troupe America in Minneapolis, Merry-Go-Round playhouse located in Auburn, New York, and Shakesperience Theatre Company in Waterbury, Connecticut. A local middle school theatre, Jason directs for local theatre companies and some of his favorites include Keely and Du; Visiting Mr. Green; As Bees in Honey Drown; Clybourne Park; A Flea in her Ear, Superior Donuts, Savannah Sipping Society, Shipwrecked, Blues in the Night. As an actor his favorite roles include Valene in A Lonesome West; Sir Toby Belch in Twelfth Night; Macbeth in Macbeth; Gloucester in King Lear; and Jim Vance in Hatfields and McCoys.

Robert Reid

Robert Reid is a Jacksonville native and loves a good story. He is an improvisational actor who got his start with the University of Florida's "Theater Strike Force." In 2006, Robert moved to Chicago to pursue his love of improv. While in the windy city, he studied improv at The Second City, iO (formerly known as Improv Olympic) and the Annoyance theaters. Robert worked as a member of Second City's Corporate Communications team and performed all over the country. He was also an ensemble member with the iO and Laugh Out Loud theaters. In addition to performing, Robert wrote, directed, and produced six sketch comedy shows. He currently performs weekly with First Coast Comedy and would like to thank his family and friends for all their support and love!

Rami Margron

Rami Margron (they/them) was raised at circus camp and steeped in dance of the African diaspora. Rami is an actor in NYC. An audience member once called them the love child of Anna Deavere Smith and Harpo Marx.

Amy Love

Amy is excited and supercharged to be here tonight with all of you fine folks. Amy is in educational sales by day and by night she is a creative writer, yoga instructor and theatrical director about town. Most recently she directed the well-received Last Train to Nibroc here at Theatre Jacksonville. Her other Loves includes her wonderful husband Thomas, and three children: Carson, Henry and Laz. She would like to thank her friend Robert for introducing her to Katie Rubin and thank you to Katie for giving the space and opportunity to tell a story tonight.
